

Parental Pathways, in partnership with Children's Books Ireland, present their inaugural conference

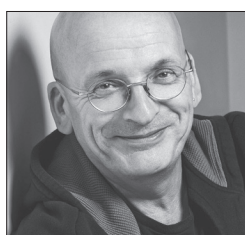

Children's Literature, Building Resilience

Saturday 17th June 2017

National Library of Ireland, Kildare Street, Dublin 1

A non-profit conference promoting childhood mental health in an exciting coming together of two disciplines – the literary and the therapeutic. Celebrating the imaginative impact children's literature plays in building a child's resilience.

Guest Speakers

Roddy Doyle
Author

Prof. Amanda Piesse
Children's Lit. Trinity College

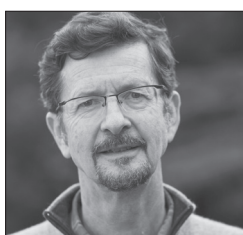

Damien O'Connor
Brown Bag Films

Hilary Fannin
Author

Siobhán Parkinson
Author

Kevin Stevens
Author

Patricia Forde
Author

Mary Pyle, PhD candidate,
Children's Lit. Trinity College

Conference opening by Senator Marie-Louise O'Donnell and Fergus Finlay CEO Barnados (nominated conference charity)

Registration 9.30am – conference concludes 4.45pm

Tickets - €65

Booking available via Eventbrite

Parental Pathways: supporting parents and their children - the parents of tomorrow!
www.parentalpathways.ie